GAVIN DATA

The following data is taken from the diary of Maj. David Gavin who was born Nov. 15, 1811 and died about 1874 unmarried. He was the great grandson of the first Gavin immigrant to S.C. This diary was kept in the 1850's and 1860's.

Maj D Gavin states that he is of Scotch Irish descent and that his great-great father Gavin (he mentioned no given name nor the maiden name of his wife) came from Ireland and located at the Waxhaw settlement and that he is buried on the N.E. side of Catawber River in Lancaster District near Rockey Mount on a plantation near the N.C. and S.C. line then owned by Zadie Perry. Also, that his grandfather, Charles Gavin, married Bathiah Byrd, whose mother was a Miss (?) King and that he moved from Mecklenburg Co. to the Cattle Creek community in Lower Orangeburg District. This move was made before the "First U.S. Census for S.C. in 1790" in which he is listed from the Orangeburg District as having a wife, four daughters, three sons over 16 yrs. of age and two under 16. Also, 18 slaves. That Charles Gavin, aunt (?) Gressett and other relatives are buried on the Cattle Creek near John Berry's "Mill" (formally belonging to my father, John Gavin I) in Orange Parish and that after his death his widow, Bathiah, moved to Mississippi to live with her children who had earlier migrated to that state. Bathiah is buried at Hopewell Church in Jasper Co. about 12 miles above Paulding where lived many of my relatives. The Gavins, Beltons, Claytons, and Tatums who are also buried there. In the 1790 census, Charles and Bathiah Gavin are listed as having nine children, but Maj. Gavin mentions only five: Charles, John I, Anne, and two other children, daughters, who are married, one a Clayton and the other a Gressett. As he spoke of the Tatums being relatives, it is probable that the fourth daughter married a Tatum.

On June 19, 1857 he states that Cousin John W. Clayton returned to Lauderdale Co. Mississippi. Also that an uncle, Charles Gavin, an aunt, (?) Clayton and Aunt Anne Belton are buried on Leaf River in Green or Perry Co., Miss.

Maj. David Gavin in his journal mentions only one child of his GREAT-GRANDFATHER and that was his (David's) grandfather, Charles GAVIN I.

Dear Gavin:

I have received your appreciated letter.

I am giving you the names of your Gavin kinfolk as I have them.

Abraham Andrews Gavin, as you know, was my father and your great grandfather. He was the son of Charles Gavin and Margrett Gavin (nee) Margarett Horger. They were married Jan. 13, 1803. Charles Gavin was born July 15, 1775. I have no record of the place of his birth. Margrett Horger was born April 19, 1785. I have no record of the place of her birth.

I have no records further back than my grandfather, Charles Gavin. They came from Orangeburg District, South Carolina and I think from near the town of Charleston.

Charles Gavin's father (do not know his name) fought in the Revolutionary War--have heard mother and father both speak of it. That is all the information I can give on the Gavin side.

James Madison Ulmer was your grandfather, born Aug. 10, 1836. He died July 13th 1873. Adam Ulmer was your great grandfather. That is all I know on the Ulmer side.

Your grandfather, James Ulmer, was a soldier in the Civil War, served about three years. He belonged to Company "A", 40th Miss. Regiment. He was born at Paulding, Jasper Co., Miss. Was a farmer. Hope this is sufficient information.

Naomi wrote she would visit us before returning North. Will be glad to have you come to see us. We hear you are doing well and are proud of your success.

We all have usual health; only Uncle Charles (he has been sick for some time, heart trouble and some bronchial affections). If weather would clear up we'd all feel better.

All join in love and best wishes.

Your fond grandmother
Charlsea Gavin Ulmer
